

MONEY SCHOOL

Transforming Financial Lives

The DCRAC Money School offers classes, coaching, and a 10 month program, all with the purpose of education around financial topics and helping you reach your goals, at no cost.

Classes

Taught by our expert volunteer faculty, classes are available for free on Zoom and in person when feasible. Classes cover topics such as:

- Money management
- Ways to save
- Credit score and credit report basics
- Investing
- Choosing the best Medicare Prescription Plan
- Estate Planning
- Start and Grow Your Small Business

To sign up, visit www.dcrac.org and go to Money School calendar.

10 Month Program

As a member of our cohort, you will participate in weekly classes and scheduled coaching sessions to set and plan for attaining your financial goals

- Curated classes by experts in their field
- Tools and resources for your individual needs
- Access to a financial coach and peer support

Financial Coaching

A coach is available to schedule a One-on-one meeting with you to discuss where you are and where you are headed.

- Improving Credit
- Budgeting and Saving
- Homeownership
- Retirement

DCRAC is a nonprofit working to transform financial lives for Delawareans through advocacy, education, legislation and outreach. Since 1987, they have operated with the mission to ensure equitable treatment and equal access to credit and capital.

Rashmi Rangan
Executive Director
302-298-3250
rrangan@dcrac.org